FROM MONTANA.

The following items are from the Virginia City Post of Oct 18th:

MINING ITEMS.

Gaston, Simpson & Co.'s mill in New York district, cleaned up $1,000 on last Thursday, out of thirty five tons of ore, in five days' run.

A new discovery of gold was made last week in Brown's Gulch, about five miles from Virginia City. Nuggets weighing eleven dollars have been found, and the gold is coarse and in encouraging quantities.

Messrs. Sweeney & Co. cleaned up last Saturday, and were made happy by finding that one thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars had been the reward of a week's run, with a single shift, on Bummer Dan's bar. When McEvily's ditch is completed, a large number of miners expect to go to their bars and do likewise.

A letter from Bannack says the miners in the gulches here, and at Horse Prairie, have been doing well.

A Helena letter says the miners in Lower Last Chance are having a better supply of water than formerly, and are consequently seeing better times.

COL. RICE KILLED.

We regret to learn that Col. Jacob N. Rice of Nevada city, a member of the last Legislature, was killed near the Big Horn by the Indians. He was a member of one of the parties that went to the Wind River Mountains to search for gold. No person was more respected in the community. He leaves a family in California to mourn his untimely end.

GEN. MEAGHER AND THE INDIANS.

Gen. Meagher arrived in Virginia City yesterday. He has visited during the summer nearly every point of the Territory, and met the chiefs of our Indian tribes and smoked with them the calumet of peace. His accomplished lady will start immediately for this place, and the General will pass the winter with us. Gov. Smith has taken most of the responsibility that has hitherto been carried upon the shoulders of the General, who will now have a chance to enjoy the roses of the Secretaryship and not be annoyed by the thorns of the gubernatorial chair.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Mr. McIntire, an employee in Vanderburg's saw mill, on Ten-Mile creek, while cleaning some sawdust from the saw got his hand in contact with it and the ring finger almost cut off, besides lacerating his hand in a shocking manner. He was brought to the city, where Drs. Glick and Harlow performed the amputation of the one finger and dressed the rest. It is doubtful whether the other finger will regain its wonted usefulness.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.

The U. S. District Court, Chief Justice Hosmer, presiding, convened at Helena on the 4th inst. A Grand Jury was summoned. Thomas V. Russell, of Virginia City, was appointed by the Court District Attorney, took the usual oath and discharged the duties of the office. The Grand Jury presented a true bill against James R. Foster for the murder of Philip Mallory, at Diamond City, on the 2d of August last. He was arraigned upon this indictment, and by his counsel, Mr. Cavanaugh, tendered a plea of guilty of manslaughter, which the Court and District Attorney declined to receive. He was remanded to jail to await trial at the next term, to be holden on the second Monday of November next. James Camille pleaded guilty to an indictment for grand larceny, and was sentenced by the Court to one year and four months' imprisonment in the House of Correction, near Detroit, Michigan. James Curley was indicted and pleaded guilty to grand larceny, and received a like sentence. Marshal Pinney, with the two prisoners above named, is now in town en route for the States. The new District Attorney, Mr. Russell, left the State of New York last spring and has been with us a few months.

The Marshal of the Territory has recently gone to Detroit, to convey to a secure place of confinement some parties who had been sentenced for committing crime.

The following items are from the Democrat of October 18th:

GREAT EXCITEMENT—NEW DISCOVERY.

There is great excitement in the lower town—Nevada. It is caused by the discovery of a paying gulch about 12 miles from Nevada, and about two miles below the Parson's toll-gate. It is called Lead Gulch. One of the districts is named Whalen District in compliment to the discoverer, Fegus Whalen. Owing to the inclemency of the weather and the near approach of winter, claims in Whalen District were laid over till spring, though several intend stopping and giving the gulch a thorough prospecting.

PURSUIT OF A SWINDLER.

A letter from Deer Lodge, dated October 27th, says Col. Thornton and Sheriff Burr returned a few days ago from following a man by the name of Hutchinson, an old drunken atheist, who swindled the good people about Blackfoot City and Helena out of near $10,000. They followed on the Oregon route across the Cœur d'Alene mountains to what is called Spokan Prairie and there overtook the old thief; but he had fallen in with a set of desperadoes that defied them to arrest Hutchinson, and they had to return without him.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Houses are scarce and rents high in Helena.

Col. Sawyer, employed by the Government in opening the Powder river road, reports all the Indians on that route as bitterly hostile to the whites.

The St. Louis Co., at Bannock, is smelting fifteen tons of "Rattlesnake" ore per day.

The Bannock Ditch and Mining Co. are taking out over $1,000 per week.

T. J. Favorite, editor of the Radiator, was married lately to Miss L. R. Gates.

Few passengers are now starting for the States by way of the Missouri river, the season being considered too late for safety.

Good hay sells at Helena at $25 to $30 per ton. There is an abundance of it.

The Montana Legislature convenes at Virginia City, November 1st.

IMPORTANT LAND OFFICE DECISION.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office, in reply to the call from the Auditor of Martin county, Minnesota, for his views as to the right to tax improvements on homestead actual settlements before the fee simple title is passed by the United States to the actual settler, says:

The spirit and purpose of Congress in this respect is clearly manifested in the fourth section of said act of the 20th of May, 1862, which declares "that no lands acquired under the provisions of this act shall in any event become liable to the satisfaction of any debt or debts contracted prior to the issuing the patent thereof." It is the generous purpose, then, of the United States, through the national legislature, to protect settlers in their homes under the law, until their titles reach maturity.

It is, of course, not the province of this office to determine questions of this character, because their solution can in no way affect the action of the Department in the premises, but such is its opinion, given because you have called for the same, and from the conviction, not only of its correctness but that the interest of all concerned—settlers, the community and the State—will be subserved by its obedience.

PRAISEWORTHY AMBITION.—In Cleveland, Ohio, the other day, a newspaper editor found an infant left at his door in a basket. With it came this note, showing that the mother thought well of newspaper men:

"Mr. Stranger Angel. I send an item. You are at liberty to give editorial endorsement. It is a man child, and its poor father and I want it taught to be an editor. MAGDALEN."

A WINDY PLACE.—The wind blows with such violence at Lone Mountain Cemetery that many of the coffins have been uncovered of the four feet of sand that was thrown upon them at interments, and the effluvium that comes from them to the city is much complained of.

The salary of the newly appointed Chief Baron of the Exchequer in England is $35,000 a year. The other judges have $25,000 each, with the exception of the Lord Chief Justice, who has $40,000 a year. The Chief Justice of the Common Pleas has $35,000 a year.

The London Times on American Politics.

It requires no more than this example to prove the error of those who tell us that political dissensions are the offspring of aristocratical institutions, class privileges, restricted suffrage, and contrasted rights. In America all men are equal. Every man has a vote—every man, we presume is attached to Democratic institutions. Political power is vested in the million, and no class or person can clamor for an extension of political privilege. Nevertheless, we see that in America the quarrels of one class with another are far more intense, bitter and ceaseless, than in this country. Our correspondent, himself an American, complains that the wear and tear and pressure upon American politicians are almost beyond endurance. They cannot get even the "quiet autumn" for which Mr. Bright feels himself compelled to stipulate. A desperate strife which broke out into bloody war breaks out again in its original proportions as soon as that war is ended. One great political party emerges from the ruins of another. Meetings far larger than our largest reform demonstrations are held in a country where reform, in the sense of democratic progress is an impossibility, and it would be hard to find any nation in which the people are more deeply and obstinately divided than the people of the United States. We are not making these remarks to their prejudice. The history of the republics of antiquity exhibits exactly the same characteristics, and they are due in great part to the free expression of popular feeling which is incidental to such governments. The example, however, should not be lost on any who are tempted to believe that with democratic reform political animosities would cease, and all parties be merged into one.

It is instructive to observe that even the terms "conservatism" and "radicalism" are introduced into the politics of a country where, according to our estimate, there can be no institutions to be preserved in spite of popular desires, and none to be uprooted in compliance with popular agitation. No changes could make the American Constitution more thoroughly Democratic than it is already, so that those who wished to preserve it can hardly be ranked with Tories. Yet at the bottom of this strife there does probably lie the eternal conflict of principle by which political parties, whatever be their denominations, are invariably animated. The American Radicals are pushing forward to a centralization of government which would remove any checks at present existing on the absolutism of popular will, and the American Conservatives are desirous of retaining those obstacles to the tyrannical power of numbers. It was the President of a Democratic Republic who told us the other day that the tyranny of the many was worse than the tyranny of one. The axiom is not now in politics, but it sounded strangely in the mouth of a Republican Magistrate. To all appearance, however, there are many in the United States who feel its force, and the impending struggle will show us how opinions are balanced.

At the outset, and on the surface of things, the now political conflict just formally inaugurated in America is but the revival of old party strife. Before the war the Democratic party enjoyed the ascendency, chiefly through the support of the South, where Democracy was dominant. The first victory of the Republicans was the election of Abraham Lincoln, which was immediately followed by the rebellion of the South, and its exclusion from Congress altogether. This transferred all political power to the Republican party, and they possess it still, and must continue to possess it so long as the Democrats of the South remain politically outlawed. It follows naturally that the Democratic party of the North should be anxious for the recall of their allies, and this is the main principle on which the new party is based. The Democrats of the North and South have met together, and, in conjunction with a considerable section of the moderate or conservative Republicans, have formed themselves by regular Convention into a "National Union" party, the object of which is to restore the Union by bringing back to it those States which are now excluded. This, however, is obviously tantamount to the restoration of Democratic ascendency; for, if North and South are polled together without disability on the part of any State or citizen, the result, in the present temper of the American people, would be the defeat of the Republicans.

The prospects of the conflict, it is said, are pretty evenly balanced. The Republicans have the advantage of a mature organization, a successful policy, and the possession of power. They, and they only, brought the civil war to a triumphant issue. They prevented the division of the Union into two States, not only without much aid from the Democrats, but, as was suspected, in spite of their clandestine opposition. This naturally gives them favor and influence now; nor would it, perhaps, have been possible to construct any strong party against them except by the aid of their own principles. The Democrats now charge the Republicans with attempting a revolution resembling that of the South itself, and with desiring to establish a division of the Union for their own political benefit. They say that the war is over, that slavery is extinct, that the people of the Southern State are willing to accept all the obligations of citizens, and that to exclude them from representation for the mere purposes of a party in Congress is to maintain and perpetuate the disunion of the Republic. Nor can these imputations be rebutted by the Republicans, who are undoubtedly keeping the Southern States from representation by imposing upon them such conditions of readmission to Congress as it is well known will not be accepted. Their only pretext for this conduct is that it would be unwise and hazardous to reinvest so quickly with political power those who have just turned it to the purposes of civil war.

It seems, however, to be anticipated that at this, as at some previous conjunctures, a large mass of Americans who sided actively with neither party will emerge from their comparative neutrality and take part in the struggle on behalf of the Union. The Democrats are now Unionists, and considering how many States are still outlawed, there is obvious reason in the argument that those who wish to keep them so must be enemies of the Union. We are told that whenever either party in America goes too far there is a mass of feeling in the body of the nation powerful enough to recall it to order. On this occasion, it is said, the Republicans will have the benefit of this political reserve. Many Americans, firm friends of the Union and enemies of slavery, have yet no inclination to abet the extravagance of those who abolished slavery and preserved the Union. The Republicans have done their work, and must now be allowed to neutralize it by the maintenance of a fatal division. On this feeling much reliance appears to be placed, and the Democrats will have the powerful assistance of the President in the approaching campaign. But the Republicans, on the other hand, have the perfect organization which carried them through the trials of the war, and they hold in strength the positions from which the new party must dislodge them. The contest, therefore, is expected to be long and desperate, and the issue is so doubtful that no politician will venture to predict it.

CAPTAIN SEMMES.—It will be recollected, says the New York Herald, that this ex-navigator was elected Judge of Probate at Mobile before he was pardoned. President Johnson rebuked the impudence of the Mobilians by forbidding him to exercise the duties of the office. The widows and orphans of the district are suffering because cases in probate are not settled and cannot be. One of the Mobile papers courteously calls on the Captain Semmes to resign. He responds, indignantly, that while he regrets the loss and inconvenience to which widows and orphans are subject, there is a great principle at stake. He was elected to the office, is qualified for it, and has been formally inducted into it. It is the fault of the President, who persists in regarding him as a traitor, that makes all the trouble. "Have the citizens of Alabama," he exclaims, "fallen so low that they are willing to sacrifice their constitutional rights and the honor of their State for any temporary advantage whatever? Admiral Semmes, for one, will never consent to such a sacrifice." This has the same unselfish characteristics as another cry we have heard, "Save me, I'm the Captain."

REMARKABLE PETRIFACTIONS.—In a lead mine at Memphis, Tennessee, some specimens of sandstone were broken open, and one was found to contain a petrified human hand, in a perfect state of preservation. In other cases parts of animals were found, and one black snake some five feet long was found, of the consistency and weight of the stone.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 6, 1866.

The November Elections.

New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Illinois, Michigan, Missouri, Minnesota, Wisconsin' Maryland, Delaware, Kansas, and Nevada hold their general elections to-day, the 6th.

New York elects a Governor, thirty-one members of Congress and an Assembly to choose a successor to Senator Ira Harris. The present delegation in Congress is 20 Union and 11 Copperhead. Last year, in the whole State Barlow's (U) majority over Slocum; (C) for Secretary of State, was 27,857. Fenton will be elected to-day over Hoffman by 20,000 to 25,000 majority, though there may be a loss of two or three Union Congressmen.

New Jersey elects five members of Congress and a Legislature. McClellan carried the State in 1864 by 8,301 and last year Ward, Union, was elected by 2,789 majority. The Legislature is now 47 Union to 34 Copperhead, and the Congressional delegation stands 3 Union and 2 Copperhead.

Massachusetts elects a Governor and 10 members of Congress. The present delegation is all Union. At the last election, Bullock, Union, beat Couch by 48,667 majority. It is safe to say that the election to-day will not change the political complexion of the Congressional delegation.

Illinois elects State officers, 14 members of Congress and a Legislature to choose a successor to Senator Trumbull. The Congressional delegation now stands 11 Union and 3 Copperhead. Lincoln obtained a majority of 30,766 over McClellan. We are not likely to lose anything in Illinois.

Michigan elects a Governor, six members of Congress and a Legislature. Lincoln beat McClellan in 1864, nearly 17,000. The present delegation in Congress is all Union.

Missouri elects a State Superintendent of Public Instruction, nine members of Congress, now all Radical but one, and a Legislature to elect a successor to B. Gratz Brown in the U. S. Senate. Lincoln beat McClellan in 1864 by 41,072 majority.

Minnesota elects a Governor two members of Congress and a Legislature. Lincoln received a majority in 1864 of 7,686. The present members of Congress are all Union.

Wisconsin elects State officers, six members of Congress, and a Legislature to choose a successor to Senator Howe. The present members in Congress are 5 Union and 1 Copperhead. Lincoln's majority over McClellan was 17,574.

Maryland elects 5 members of Congress and a Legislature which will have a Senator to elect in place of Creswell, Union. Lincoln's majority in 1864 was 7,414. The present members are 3 Union and 2 rebels.

Delaware elects a Governor, one member of Congress and a Legislature. The State went Copperhead in 1864 by a majority of 612, and the present member of Congress is a Copperhead.

Kansas elects a Governor one member of Congress and a Legislature which will choose two U. S. Senators. Lincoln's majority in 1864 was 12,750.

Nevada elects a Governor one member of Congress and a Legislature to elect a successor to Senator Nye. The Union majority in 1864 was 3,232.

The above States now have in Congress 69 Union members and 22 Copperheads—total, 91. The Unionists will hold their own everywhere except possibly in two or three of the New York districts. The Union strength in the next Congress will not fall more than five or six, if any, below the present numbers. The Congressional policy will be emphatically endorsed by the people to whom Andrew Johnson referred his quarrel, and treason will yet be made odious.

The Cause of the Apostasy.

Mr. Andrew Johnson about one year ago conceived the design of breaking up the Union party. The result of his effort is his own discomfiture and the utter failure of his Administration. He has been broken on the wheel that he meant for the Union party. We read in an ancient historical narrative of a person who erected a very high gallows on which to hang his enemy, but which, a little time afterwards, was the instrument of his own execution. If Mr. Johnson could not destroy the party which elected him, he has found that he could at least be the agent in causing his own political death.

But what induced him to leave the Union party and seek to disrupt it? Why did he entertain this design against the party which had carried the country safely through the war, and which was supported by the loyal masses in all parts of the country?

Mr. Johnson is not a modest man, and his estimate of his own abilities is by no means so moderate as that of very many other persons. He thought himself able to create a party which would elect him President in 1868—and to that end he set about managing the South so as to secure the vote of that section, knowing that the Democratic party of the North would accept him without question, if the South would only support him. From the Union party he believed he could carry over with him enough votes to give him a majority in the great States where the parties are nearly at a counterpoise; and in this way a party could be formed which would acknowledge him as its creator and leader. He did not believe that the Union party as then constituted, would support him for another term. That his former nomination for the Vice Presidency was distasteful to a large portion of that party, he perfectly well knew. That this feeling of opposition was strengthened by his conduct on the occasion of his inauguration, he was also clearly aware. He could not but know that his having a place with Lincoln on the national Union ticket was the result of an accident, and that of this accident, the Union party, after the scene at the inauguration, had deeply repented. It was evident to him that the party which had reluctantly supported him for Vice President would never nominate him for the Presidency. Impressed profoundly with these views and with ideas of his own great powers and deserts, he set about trying to destroy the Union party and to create a new political organization which should be in closer sympathy with himself and with men of his kind. Mr. Johnson belongs to that low class of demagogues who naturally associate with the Democratic party; and there can be no feeling in common between the Union party and himself. The war placed him with the Unionists; and accident made him Vice President; a still more untoward accident made him President, and as he could hope for nothing more from the Unionists, he undertook to overthrow their party that it might not defeat his selfish ambition.

"Justice to the Southern people," is the perpetual cry of their political allies in the North. Justice is just what the leading rebels do not want and what they are not likely to get, for A. Johnson is opposed to hanging a single one of them.

STATE ITEMS.

Charles Beam, a young man, recently living 22 miles west of Corvallis, mysteriously disappeared about two weeks since and has not been seen or heard of since.

Nothing has yet transpired, says the Corvallis Gazette, explaining the mystery connected with the late murder in Benton county.

At the recent session of the Columbia Conference of the M. E. Church South, Rev. A. E. Sears was appointed Presiding Elder of the Oregon District, consisting of Oregon City, Lafayette, Independence, Albany, Brownsville, Eugene and Corvallis. Rev. O. H. E. Newton was appointed Presiding Elder of the Jacksonville District, consisting of Jacksonville, Roseburg and Oakland.

A youth about sixteen years of age, says the Gazette, son of John Newman, living near this place, while chopping wood, accidentally cut his great toe on the left foot—mortification ensued, and on last Tuesday, the toe was amputated by Dr. Snow; without the use of chloroform. The boy stood the operation manfully, scarcely flinching, while others could not even witness the cutting.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO NOVEMBER 5.

New York Money and Stocks Report.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The Post's money article says the sensational reports from Baltimore to-day checked the upward tendency of speculation in railroad and fancy stocks. In consequence of disbursements from the Treasury gold is plentiful and delivery is being freely made, but as much as four per cent. is being given by holders of command have it carried. The loan market is fresh at five per cent. for calls and 4½@6; for discounts. The stock market is unsettled. Government securities are better, and railroad shares are offered at lower prices.

The Commercial's money article says money is in steady demand on call loans, the rates generally are five per cent. and four per cent. on Government securities. The most general rate on four months is six per cent. Gold continues firmer. There is no scarcity for delivery, three to four per cent. being paid for having gold carried. This advance is encouraged by the specie deposits which have been larger than was expected yesterday. The shipment of specie to-day was $741,518, and for the week was $941,445. Government securities are firm.

The Troubles in Baltimore.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Much solicitude prevails here concerning the troubled condition of affairs in Baltimore. It is reported that troops were to-day sent to that neighborhood to be ready in case of any emergency, and if there should be any hostile demonstrations on the part of the authorities the United States will declare the city under martial law, for the purpose of preserving the peace.

State of affairs at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4.—The counsel for Gov. Swan's new commissioners made an application to Judge Barton for a writ of habeas corpus to bring before him the parties now held in custody, the writ to be returned to-morrow. The city is quiet, but a disturbance to-morrow seems inevitable; both sides expect it and are prepared for it. Each wants the other to take the initiative. There is a strong guard of Radical police, both regular and special; at the commissioners' head quarters, and at every police station in the city, besides several thousand boys in blue ready for action at a moment's call. The Conservative's force is equally well organized, and is more confident from the belief that the Federal force now here about 4,000 will assist them in the event of a fight. Grant arrived at midnight.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—A cabinet discussion, an important consultation, was held at the Executive mansion this morning, at which the President, Attorney General Stansbury, General Grant, and Secretary Stanton were present. The subject discussed was Maryland difficulties; afterwards, Gov. Swan and Montgomery Blair had an interview with the President. If it has been decided to help Gov. Swan by Federal force, the fact will be demonstrated early to-morrow; but it is the opinion here to-night that it has been decided to leave the whole matter to the courts. Gov. Swan informed the President last night that he was wholly unable to execute the laws, although there had been no overt acts of armed resistance to him. Two regiments of infantry are under arms at the Baltimore depot, ready to leave at a moment's notice.

Col. Sweeney Applies to be Re-instated in the Army.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Brevet Col. Sweeny has made a direct application to be re-instated in his old position in the army, and there seems to be no doubt but that the President will re-instate him.

Sanford Conover alias Dunham, who was arrested last week in New York, charged with having received a bribe for swearing to a false statement implicating Jeff. Davis in the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, is now in jail to await the action of the grand jury.

Gen. Grant Engages in the Mexican Question.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The Washington special of the Herald says: Gen. Grant has at last, most probably by advice of the President, taken up the Mexican question in earnest, and will attend to it with great zeal so far as he is concerned. On Saturday he invited Senor Romero, the Mexican Minister, to a confidential interview at his headquarters, which lasted some time. After Romero's departure there was a staff meeting. What connection this may or may not have had with the Mexican question, I can't say. One thing more; there is no reason to believe that the Mexican question has been re-opened with France, but that it remains just where the last published note from M. De l'Huys to Mr. Seward, placed it. The Government is waiting to see how the French will act up to the first of the coming year, and if at that time there is any bad faith exhibited or tendency to duplicity, then such action will be forcibly recommended as will insure our feelings and interests to be respected.

President Juarez has written a letter in which he again asserts his willingness to consider any project looking to the cession of the Northern States of Mexico to the United States. Furthermore, it is well known that some three years ago Leon Joss Donlngo Cortez came to this city and proposed to the Executive the annexation to the United States of Chihuahua and States of Mexico on the Pacific coast, in order as he said to free them from French intervention, and that Juarez instructed Romero to officially deny that Cortez had any right to make any such proposition.

Fenian Matters in Canada.

The Herald's Toronto special says great dissatisfaction exists in the case of Lumsden. The Catholics of the city assert boldly that Lumsden was discharged on religious grounds and that the evidence against him was stronger than that against McMahon.

The World's Toronto special says in consequence of threatening letters sent to witnesses for the crown in the Fenian cases, they refuse to give evidence unless assured of adequate military protection at Fort Erie.

"My Policy" Protects the Murderers at New Orleans.

NEW YORK, November 3.—The Tribune's New Orleans special says it is stated on very good authority that the President has ordered General Sheridan not to make any arrests under General Grant's famous order, which affects forty-four persons accused of committing murders on the 31st of July. It is well known that affidavits were placed in General Sheridan's hands over two months ago, accusing certain parties of murder, and the above accounts for his not acting in the matter. The appointment of Judge Morgan, a notorious copperhead, as United States District Attorney, effectually prevents the prosecution of the murderous parties held for trial by the U. S. Commissioner, under the Civil Rights Bill.

Official information reached General Sheridan yesterday of numerous murders and outrages committed against Union men in the Parish of St. Landry.

Meeting of the Tennessee Legislature.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—A Nashville special says that the Tennessee Legislature convenes to-day, but there will not be a quorum for several days, however, as full returns from the election on Thursday have not been received. Governor Brownlow, it is understood, in his message will advocate negro suffrage and the perpetual disfranchisement of all rebels.

Foreign News per Steamer.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The City of Paris from Liverpool October 24th, and Queenstown 25th, has arrived. The Mechanic's Magazine says the British Government has ordered a fifteen inch Rodman gun with improved carriage, shot and powder from the United States gun factory, which will probably arrive in five or six weeks, when we hope for a settlement of the question between British and American ordnance.

The Prince of Wales leaves England for Russia on the 5th of November, with a numerous suite, to attend the marriage of the Princess Dagmar with the Czarovich.

The Standard Theatre at the east end of London was burned on the 21st.

The War Secretary has invited proposals for breech-loads to replace the present rifles used by the British army.

Prussian conscription in Schleswig-Holstein is decreed from January 1st, in conformity with Prussian military regulations under the Prussio-Saxon treaty. Persons politically compromised during recent events will suffer no molestation.

The famine in India has almost ended and the plentiful harvest bids fair to restore the country to its usual prosperity. A Calcutta paper says it is estimated that three quarters of the lower population and half of the lower class of agriculturalists perished or will perish before the calamity is stayed.

Liverpool circulars of the 24th report an improvement in flour of 1s 6d per sack; in wheat 4s to 4s6d per 100 lbs.

Further from Baltimore—The Habeas Corpus Case.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—In the Court of Appeals this morning Mr. Latrobe, on behalf of the new Commissioners, announced that writs of habeas corpus had been served on the warden of the jail this morning; and added that he had just learned that the warden had been at the Court House without the prisoner, and gave as a reason that he had no means of conveyance. Mr. Latrobe would not say this was or was not merely a contradiction of the efforts of the other side to consume time, but it looked like it. Judge Norton reminded him that the warden had three days by law in which to make return. Mr. Shefey said that he considered the intent of the law to be that unless there was unavoidable impediments, the warden was bound to produce the prisoner without delay. At half-past eleven, the prisoner not appearing, Mr. Horwitz, on behalf of the sheriff, prepared a petition that his Honor would command the deputy sheriff forthwith to bring the warden before the court, together with the high sheriff. Mr. Schiels said he would, on behalf of his client, have a similar petition to appear. Mr. Lhervy, counsel for the commissioners, now appeared and said the warden of the jail was in consultation with his counsel, and he expected that by one o'clock such return will be made as would render any further proceeding unnecessary.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—At 2:20 o'clock this morning, a gathering of clouds culminated in a very brisk rain, which continued for several hours.

The following telegram has been received in this city:

SALT LAKE, Nov. 3—12 M.—Ben Holliday, accompanied by his travelling companion, Dr. Louis Asayer, of Nebraska Territory, left in his private coach for California, this morning. A consolidation has been effected between Holladay's Overland Mail and Express Company and the Overland Mail Company, the Pioneer Stage Company, Wells, Fargo & Co. and the American Express Company, under Holladay's charter, with a capital of $10,000,000. It is understood that Ben Holliday secures a million and a half in cash, and a half a million in stocks for his Overland Stage Line, and remains a director of the Company. Louis McLane has been elected President.

SALT LAKE, Nov. 3.—The telegraph line to Virginia City, Montana, is completed and is working finely at 4 o'clock to-day. The people of Virginia City are delighted, and are having a large meeting to-night.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—The Grand Jury have presented to the County Court an indictment charging C. B. McDonald, D. C. McCarthy, Merrill, Wm. Coschept McCarty and J. H. Joselyn, of the American Flag, with the crime of libel of Wm. C. Ralston, of the Bank of California. The defendants were all admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000 each.

The Wine Growers' State Convention adopted memorials to Congress and the Pacific Congressional delegation, asking a reduction of the tax on the manufactory of grape brandy to the rate in force last year, and raise the import duty on foreign wine, costing fifty cents or less per gallon to specific duty 50c.

The number of deaths in this city last week was 47.

The P. M. S. steamer Sacramento arrived at 6 o'clock this morning with New York dates to October 13th.

Money Market.

Private telegrams quote gold in New York yesterday at 147⅞. The Treasury has already commenced paying out gold for the cancellation of 5-20 coupons now due.

Legal Tenders are quoted at 70c buying and 71 selling, with moderate demand. The money market is a shade easier. Bank rates for interest 1½ per cent; Mexican dollars five and six per cent. premium.

The steamer Active clears to-day for Victoria with a cargo valued at $344,70 besides $40,000 in treasure.

Shipping.

Arrived—Nov. 2, 105 days from Hamburg, British ship Nora, merchandise. Nov. 3, Harvest Home, 60 days from Sydney, coal.

Sailed—Nov. 2, schooner Eliza Walker; bark Milani Hamburg; bark Pauline; brig Crimea.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—The following private dispatch has been received in this city:

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—The Paris commissioners are all appointed. Lieut. Gov. Sam'l Purdy will probably be Postmaster. Rand has been appointed U. S. Marshal. Jacob Pleasus name has been withdrawn and Gammon is an applicant for the Mint, backed by Gen. Denver. Other changes will soon be announced.

The following is given in a letter from Acapulco written under date of October 26th. Oaxaca, one of the chief cities in Southern Mexico had been taken by General Porfireulo. The Imperialist garrison took refuge in the convents of Santo Domingo and El Carga and then sent to Diaz propositions for a capitulation, but Diaz refused absolutely to enter into any kind of arrangements with them as he is sure they will soon be obliged to surrender at discretion. By the arrival of the Prussian ship Deer West, 61 days from Hong Kong, we have received files of the Press to Setember 1st. Previous dates from Shanghai were to September 8th. The Carl Ludwig was loading at Hong Kong for San Francisco. The British ship Argemera from Puget Sound arrived on Aug 2nd. Extraordinary excitement prevailed in Hong Kong in consequence of a threatened stamp act which had been brought up in the Legislature. A correspondent of the Press at Kinkeary gives a graphic account of the burning of the handsome American steamer Hayes on the 19th of August. The destruction was complete but no lives lost.

Clirnce, the pirate chief was hung on the 29th of August.

The steamships California and Prine Prepairo arrived out from San Francisco on the 30th of August. The Fellie sailed on the 28th of August, for San Francisco.

The markets, August 31. Opium, Patna, new, $6 30 cash; sales of old at $6 10. Rangoon and Sagoon Rice $1 90@2.

Nicholas Leufert, a native of Kentucky, aged 26 years, has been sent to Stockton as insane.

Thos. Wilson, a drunken sailor, while on a drunken spree yesterday, stabbed an unoffending Chinaman, on Jackson street, in the side and arm, out of pure malignancy and without the slightest provocation. He was arrested on the spot. The Chinaman is so seriously wounded that his recovery is considered doubtful.

Judge Dwinelle to-day granted Ann C. Parrish a divorce from her husband, Dewitt C. Parrish, on account of the defendant having been convicted of a felony, and punished by over two years imprisonment in the State prison.

This morning the grand jury of the United States presented a number of indictments against prominent citizens for fraud against the internal revenue laws.

The first issue of a new morning journal, called the Daily Times, made its appearance in San Francisco to-day. It is a good sized sheet and of respectable typographical execution, and begins its career with a brief and modest salutatory. It is put forth by the Times Publishing Association.

The Markets.

Valuable Farm for Sale.

THAT VALUABLE FARM, KNOWN AS THE McDONALD FARM, situated five miles south of Dayton, Yamhill County, is offered for sale. The farm consists of six hundred and thirty-five acres, all excellent arable land, about one-half of which is under good fence. On the premises are a good Frame House and Barn and a large fine Orchard, with an abundance of good water, excellent ash timber and a fine grove of fir. The farm is situated in a healthy and pleasant neighborhood. There is a good level road leading from it to Dayton, a point reached by steamboats the whole year. Altogether, it is one of the most desirable locations in the State. Any one desiring a farm would do well to examine this place. Please call upon or address the undersigned at Dayton, Yamhill County, Oregon.

TO SAIL.—The steamer Montana, of the Anchor line, J. B. Kelly, Commander, is advertised to sail on Wednesday the 7th inst., at 8 o'clock P. M. We understand that her ... of passengers is almost fully made up. Primarily the Oregonians open their eyes wide with wonder to see the great rush of travel down the river and through to San Francisco and the Eastern States. Our hotels are crowded to overflowing. The steamers take away a crowd and they are then out for a little while, when reinforcements arrive, and we again have to scramble for our dinners. Three steamers are despatched per week, yet still they come, and all available space upon their arrival is crowded full. On the previous trip of the Pacific the crowd could not be accommodated and tickets were then issued for the Oriflamme, and the berths all taken before she sailed. The same has been the case with the Montana. She has been so crowded that her complement is made up ... immediately after her arrival. The ... the rival ships are no doubt much disgusted. "Othello's occupation's gone." They get more passengers than they know what to do with. The Chico and ... routes may deprive us of a great amount of travel, but the "lion's share" is certainly our portion.

AT COURT.—Before Judge Hoffman yesterday morning: Two men, arrested for fighting on Front street, found guilty and fined $5 and costs. Jack Wilson, charged with an assault and battery upon a Chinaman named Ah Jim, found guilty and fined $5 and costs; in default, committed for two days. John Kelly alias John ..., charged with drunken and disorderly conduct on Front street, found guilty and fined $5 and costs. John Kelly alias John Anderson, charged with assault and battery upon a half breed woman named Mary. The assault was in an aggravated one; both parties were drunk ... was fined $20 and costs, in default was committed for ten days. John Kelly alias John Anderson, charged with robbery, committed in the taking from the person of Mary certain valuables at the time of the assault upon her by defendant. Anderson was committed for trial. The case will be heard this morning.

DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, JUDGE.—Grand Jury impaneled. The following persons were impanneled and sworn as Jurors: Orvill Risley, Foreman. Samuel Carter, Richard White, Thomas Blanchard, George E. Getchel, John ..., Horace Lindsay, Jacob Hampton, E E Hadesty, Wm Shirlock, Alexander McCourt, Pembroke Gill, Wm Abernethy, Josiah Falling, James Boyce, Lewis Hanlign Stephen Coffin, T L Burbank and Joseph Watt. James Guthrie was admitted to the bar. United States vs. R. G. Randall, criminal recognizance. Defendant was called and default entered. United States vs. Joseph Sonnenberg, impeachment for doing business without license, defendant called and default entered. United States vs. D. B. Hanna et al; an action on official bonds. This action is for moneys unaccounted for while defendant was United States Marshal. A demurrer to complaint argued and submitted. Dolph appearing for plaintiff and Page for defendant.

THE AMERICAN CONFLICT.—The second volume of this great work has been received by the agent, W. H. Shaw, and can now be furnished to subscribers and others in any desired quantity. Of course everybody buys this greatest and best of all the histories of the war. We shall take occasion to notice this volume more at length at a future time. Meanwhile we advise all to see Mr Shaw and obtain the concluding portion of this magnificent work.

OWNER FOUND.—P R. Kennedy, the owner of the carpet sack found in the vicinity of Robinson's Hill not long since, has appeared and claimed the articles. They were stolen from the house in which Mr Kennedy was living during his absence. Some valuable articles are still missing.

INTERIOR PRODUCE.—The steamer Senator arrived at a late hour last evening, bringing the following freight 2 bales woolen goods, 1 case woolen goods, 1 bbl. cider, 2 coops chickens, 200 sks feed, 232 qr sks flour, 38 sks potatoes, 1 gunny bacon, 2 hf bbls butter, 36 horses, 2 boxes ..., and 4 pieces cedar timber

TO SAIL.—The steamer Pacific, Wm Metzger commander, will sail for San Francisco direct, on Wednesday, the 7th inst.

TO SAIL.—The steamer Fidelity, Erskine commander will sail for Victoria direct this evening at 9 o'clock

THE HUNT.—The Wilson G. Hunt brought last evening a large crowd of miners.

RECEIVED BY STEAMER.—Borman Bros will open to-day some of the finest Shaffer's beaver Prock dress coats, Montana Beaver suits in sack and frock styles Scotch plaid suits, and also a novelty in the shape of dog skin driving gloves, and will sell them at the lowest cash price. Don't fail to see them.

HATS.—Go and see Mouse ... at the Pioneer Hat Store. They have received a large ... for last steamer, and can suit the most fastidious as to style and quality.

TO THE LADIES.—Mrs ... wishes to change her business and is offering her goods at a low figure. See her advertisement.

NO CARDS.—When these words are added to a marriage notice, they must not be understood as meaning that the happy couple have not visited the PICTURE GALLERY of ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL 89 Front street, and obtained a dozen of those SPLENDID CARD PICTURES, for which these gentlemen are so justly celebrated. Children should be brought in the forenoon

BUCHTEL'S PREMIUM GALLERY was represented at the State Fair, as it always has been, and did take the FIRST PREMIUM as usual. His work stands for itself and does not require bombastic puffs in self written cards, to recommend itself to the public. All kinds of work in the art furnished in the very latest styles.

What Experienced Mill Men think of the Portable Steam Saw Mills built by the Oregon Iron Works!
PORTLAND, Oct. 18th, 1866.
TO THE OREGON IRON WORKS
Gentlemen—The Portable Steam Saw Mill which we purchased of you last spring for Pend d'Oreille Lake, has been in operation during the past season, and has more than met our expectations in its performance. With three men, we turn out from three to four thousand feet, and with five men, five thousand feet per day of ten hours, and we take pleasure in recommending these mills as the most SUBSTANTIAL, DESIRABLE AND PERFECT MILLS IN USE, and especially adapted to the wants of this country, on account of their compact form, ease of transportation, and the facility with which they can be set up and put in operation. Although subjected to the most severe tests, no repairs have been required oc21d1m [Signed,] ABRAMS & HOGUE.

THE TEETH! THE TEETH!
DR. J. R. CARDWELL,
Having lately returned from San Francisco, would inform his friends and the public generally that he is now prepared to meet the demands for DENTAL WORK. All the Latest Improvements and Inventions in Dentistry will be found in his office, and all operations in the Dental Art will be personally attended by Dr. C. As to his previous efforts he would respectfully refer to those cases that have already come under his management. ap11dtf

DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS

Have been of great service in making people healthy, and keep them so. They should be found in every household

They give tone to the Stomach, vigor to the body and remove dark doubts and unhappy feelings from the mind They relieve pain and fortify the whole system against the attacks of disease

There is nothing better to take "for the Stomach's sake" than the PLANTATION BITTERS

They cure Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Indigestion, Drowsiness, Headache, Pain in the Side, Liver Complaint, and Rheumatic Pains, with magical power

A good effect is felt at once upon making the first trial. No change of diet is necessary. Eat the best you can get and all you want. Follow our directions and you will soon feel

WELL, STRONG AND HEARTY.

A great many side bits are being made at the Plantation Bitters, by a score or two of disinterested friends who have endeavored to imitate or counterfeit them. It is all of no use. The people won't be imposed upon. The Plantation Bitters are increasing in use and popularity every day, and "that's what's the matter." They are the same sized bottle, and made just as they were at first, and will continue to be, or we shall stop making them.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate
They create a healthy appetite
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation
They cure Diarrhea, Cholera and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache

They are the best Bitters in the world. They make the weak strong, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. The Recipe and full Circular are around each bottle. Clergymen, Merchants, and persons whose sedentary habits induce weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, liver complaint, constipation, &c., will find immediate and permanent relief in these Bitters. But above all, they are recommended to weak and delicate females and mothers

They are sold by all respectable merchants. See that each bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork and steel plate side label

Beware of refilled bottles. See that the stamp has not been tampered with. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon is a swindler and impostor, and should be immediately reported to us

Barnes' Magnolia Water.

A toilet delight! The ladies treasure and gentlemen's boon! The "sweetest thing" and largest quantity. Manufactured from the rich Southern Magnolia. Used for bathing the face and person, to render the skin soft and fresh, to prevent eruptions, to perfume clothing, &c.

It overcomes the unpleasant odor of perspiration.
It removes redness, tan, blotches, &c
It cures nervous headache and allays inflammation.
It cools, softens and adds delicacy to the skin
It yields a subdued and lasting perfume
It cures musquito bites and stings of insects.
It contains no material injurious to the skin.
It is what every lady should have. Sold everywhere
Try the Magnolia Water once and you will use no other Cologne, Perfumery, or Toilet Water afterwards

Mustang Liniment.

OVER A MILLION DOLLARS SAVED!

Gentlemen—"I had a negro man worth $1,200 who took cold from a bad hurt in the leg, and was useless for over a year. I had used everything I could hear of without benefit, until I tried the Mexican Mustang Liniment. It soon effected a permanent cure."
J. L. DOWNING.
Montgomery, Ala., June 17, 1859.

"I take pleasure in recommending the Mexican Mustang Liniment as a valuable and indispensable article for Sprains, Sores, Scratches or Galls on Horses. Our men have used it for Burns, Bruises, Sores, Rheumatism, &c., and all say it acts like magic. J. W. HEWITT,
Foreman American, Wells, Fargo's and Harnden's Express

"The sprain of my daughter's ankle, occasioned while skating last winter, was entirely cured in one week, after she commenced using your celebrated Mustang Liniment.
Gloucester, Mass., Aug. 1, 1865. ED. SEELY."

It is an admitted fact that the Mexican Mustang Liniment performs more cures in shorter time, on man and beast, than any article ever discovered. Families, livery men and planters should always have it on hand. Quick and sure it certainly is. All genuine is wrapped in steel-plate engravings, bearing U S. Stamp of DEMAS BARNES & Co over the top.

An effort has been made to counterfeit it with a cheap stone-plate label. Look closely!

Lyon's Katharion.

It is a most delightful Hair Dressing
It eradicates scurf and dandruff
It keeps the head cool and clean.
It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy
It prevents hair turning gray and falling off
It restores hair upon prematurely bald heads

This is just what Lyon's Katharion will do. It is pretty—it is cheap—durable. It is literally sold by the car load, and yet its almost incredible demand is daily increasing until there is hardly a country store that does not keep it, or a family that does not use it.
E THOMAS LYON, Chemist N Y

Lyon's Extract Ginger.

LYON'S EXTRACT OF PURE JAMAICA GINGER—for Indigestion Nausea, Heartburn, Sick Headache Cholera Morbus, Flatulency, &c., where a warming stimulant is required Its careful preparation and entire purity make a cheap and reliable article for culinary purposes. Sold every where at 50 cents per bottle. Ask for "LYON'S" PURE EXTRACT. Take no other.

CAUTION—See that the private U S Stamp of Demas Barnes & Co is over cork of each bottle. None other is genuine

Lyon's Flea Powder.

DEATH TO FLEAS.—It is well known that Lyon's genuine Magnetic Powder will perfectly destroy everything in the shape of fleas, ticks, bed-bugs, roaches, &c, that it is perfect poison to the insect tribe, but entirely harmless to the human species and domestic animals. The genuine has the signature of E Lyon, and the private stamp of DEMAS, BARNES & Co. Anything else of this kind is an imitation or counterfeit. Any druggist will procure the genuine if you insist you will have no other.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 623 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts. The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

An Autumn Fancy

The apple trees up in the orchard
This frosty autumnal morn
Are tossing their heads in a frolic
And laughing the year to scorn

Around us the flowers are falling,
All grass and leaves decay
But these merry groups on the uplands,
What in the world care they?

Children are picking the wind-falls,
And shouting in pure delight
While the trees they nod this way and that way
Plainly enjoying the sight!

You would say they were playing at pastimes
And look! at arm's length they hold
The baubles they throw all shining
In russet and crimson and gold

Circumstantial Evidence—Some Remarkable Cases

THE SHOP BOY

Cases exhibiting the precarious nature of circumstantial evidence, independently of the deep interest which generally attaches to them as mere narratives, are calculated to work so beneficial an effect on the public mind, that they cannot, it seems to us, be too frequently or too permanently brought forward in pages adapted for popular reading By no other means can mankind be so strongly impressed with a salutary conviction of the necessity of making the strictest and most minute investigations, ere the life of a fellow creature be arbitrarily shortened, or guilt of whatever kind, be decisively laid to any one's charge.

The following cases of circumstantial evidence are collected from various sources The first we find in the able notes to a Scotch edition of Bentham's Works, and the authority adduced is one of the collections of French criminal cases that have been published at various times The case is given in the original French, of which the following is a literal translation

Previous to the rebuilding of the long range of houses which line the Place St Michel, at Paris, in front of the Rue St Hyacinth, an aged widow lived near that spot, being the occupant of a small shop, to which was attached a back parlor where she slept. She was believed by the neighbors to have amassed a considerable amount of money One young lad constituted, for a long time, her entire household He slept on the fourth floor of the same building, but the staircase leading to his apartment had no communication with the dwelling of his mistress. The lad was obliged to go round by the street, when he had to enter the shop, and when he left it to go to bed, he shut the outer door, and carried away the key, of which he was the sole depository.

One morning the shop door was noticed to be earlier open than usual, while at the same time no movement indicated that either the old shopkeeper or assistant had arisen. The quietness alarmed some of the neighbors. On entering, they perceived no marks of violence about the door, but they found a bloody knife lying in the middle of the shop, and on her bed, in the back apartment, lay the shopmistress, dead—stabbed, to all appearance, by the weapon mentioned. The corpse held in one hand a small handful of hair, and in the other a cravat or neckcloth Near the bed was the money box, which had been forced and pillaged. The young shop assistant was immediately seized, and he admitted that the bloody knife belonged to him The cravat which the murdered woman held in her hand was his They compared his hair with that grasped in the other hand, the two were the same in color and in every other respect Finally, the key of the shop was in his possession, he alone had the power, by means of that key, of entering the shop without resorting to force. On the strength of this accumulation of evidence, he was put to the torture (on lui fait subir la question,) under its agonies, he admitted the crime and was broken on the wheel (rompu)

Shortly afterward, a tavern boy was taken up for some crime of a different nature. In the declaration emitted by him after conviction and condemnation, he confessed that he was the sole actor in the assassination of the old woman in the Place St Michel. The tavern where he served adjoined her shop, and he was on familiar terms with her shop boy To the latter he acted as hair dresser, so far as regarded the periodical arrangement of the lad's hair en queue, and always when he used the comb, he carefully gathered those hairs which the instrument detached By little and little he had thus collected the handful which was found in the grasp of the murdered woman. The knife, and one of the cravats of the lad, he had procured without difficulty and the terms of intimacy on which they were, enabled him with equal ease to take an impression of the shop key, for the fabrication of a false one By these means he entered and committed the deed, leaving things in the state which has been related.

Such is the story as told by the French writer. Seldom has there been a piece of villainy so coolly planned and so ruthlessly executed, at the foreseen and expected cost of existence to two unfortunate beings The succeeding two cases are of a similar order, exhibiting the fall of innocence before premeditated villainy, and are from the Causes Celebres, first series, volume third (Amsterdam edition of 1775)

THE JEWS.

In a hotel or lodging house at Milan, a Frenchman and two Jews were resident at one and the same time. The Jews occupied a chamber adjoining that of the Frenchman, who formed an acquaintance with them in consequence He observed them to be very rich, as they often counted great bags of pistoles in his presence. This led him to the following guilty device.

He cut or tore off a considerable portion of a night wrapper or gown belonging to him, and contrived not only to leave it in the chamber of the Jews, but to watch the use they made of it They employed it to wrap up a parcel of 100 pistoles. On the morning after observing this, the Frenchman, as soon as he arose, alarmed the house with cries of "robbery!"

Everybody ran to his chamber, and there heard him tell a melancholy tale of the loss of 100 pistoles, which he had wrapped up in the front of his gown. He asserted that some one must have entered while he slept, and cut away the part of the gown with the money. The officers of justice were called to examine the house

In the chamber of the Jews was found the portion of gown, and the Frenchman then called out, "There is my money!" The Jews were timorous men, and were thrown into confusion This strengthened the case against them, and the consequence was they were executed. At an after period, the guilty author of their death confessed the conspiracy by which he had implicated them

THE FLEMISH CURATE.

Another victim of a plot of this nature was a Flemish curate, who lived near the commencement of the eighteenth century. He was a man of remarkable piety, and exhibited in his conversation and deportment all the virtues which ought to adorn the character of him who assumes to be the teacher of others.

In his parish resided a man of violent passions, who entertained a mortal enmity against another parishioner and neighbor, and resolved to assassinate him Casting his eyes deliberately about him to discover a mode of doing this with safety, this wretch noticed a habit which the curate had of throwing off his walking coat whenever he entered his own house, and of putting on a short cassock in its stead, leaving the coat carelessly in the outer room or lobby, which was open to friend or stranger at almost any time.

Observing this custom, the man alluded to resolved upon taking a diabolical advantage of it He fixed upon a time when he knew the curate to be usually engaged in composing the sermon for the following Sunday's service, and entered the lobby, whence he carried off the coat, and a neckerchief, which he found also there. He knew that, immediately after this time, the person whose assassination he meditated would pass by a retired spot near the village. The villain had planned his time well. The victim came up to the spot as expected, and perished under the knife or dagger of his enemy, who afterward returned without delay to the curate's house. Favored by the dusk, he placed the coat neckerchief and dagger in the lobby whence he had taken them, and then went off to the nearest magistrate and denounced the curate as the murderer, declaring that he himself, from a little distance, had beheld the commission of the crime

The magistrate hurried to the reported scene of the deed, saw and recognized the body, and then proceeded to the house of the unfortunate and unconscious clergyman Half hidden in the lobby were found the coat, the kerchief and the dagger, all of them more or less stained with blood The curate was arrested and thrown into prison

When the matter sustained a judicial examination, the "bold, bad man," who had projected this double murder, adhered to his story, and as no one was with the curate at the time in his dwelling, the accused had no exculpatory evidence to offer, excepting what was afforded by his simple protestation of innocence and the sanctity of his former character

All his flock, and, indeed, all who knew him, believed him to be utterly incapable of such a crime, but the law, and the judges of the law, regarded the criminatory testimony as too strong to be doubted and held it to be their duty to condemn the accused

The best of men it was argued by the public prosecutors have been known to be hurried by the violence of temporary passion into the commission of crime, and such was but too probable the case here

When the sentence was known, a great sensation was excited over the whole country The whole community were in favor of the curate but this could not save him from the [illegible] he was doomed He died with a degree of calm resignation which drew tears of admiring pity from all who saw him

Four years after his execution, the villain who had caused his end, involved himself in another murder, and on this occasion the crime was brought home to him He was condemned to be broken on the wheel—a death too horrible for even such a criminal as he was

HAWKINS AND SIMPSON

Cases have occurred, both where accusations have been established and where they have been refuted, by the observation of some peculiarity in the ink with which documentary evidence was written If the assertion has been made that all parts of a particular document were written at one and the same period, with the same ink, and if it is discovered that the ink has a different appearance at one place from that which it presents at another, judges and jurymen would be generally inclined to regard this as a strong proof of the falsity of the document, or at least the assertion made regarding it But the following case, which we find quoted in a little work entitled The Theory of Presumptive Proof, shows how cautious people ought to be in running hastily to such a conclusion

John Hawkins and George Simpson were indicted for robbing the mail, on the 10th of April, 1722 Hawkins in his defense, set up an alibi, to prove which, he called on William Fuller, who deposed that Hawkins came to his house on Sunday, the 15th of April, and lay there that night, and did not go out until next morning Being asked by the court, "By what token do you remember that it was the 15th of April?" he replied

"By a very good token, for he owed me a sum of money for horse hire, and on Tuesday, the 10th of April, he called upon me and paid me in full, and I gave him a receipt, and I very well remember that he lay at my house the Sunday night following"

The receipt was now produced

"April the 15th, 1722 Received of Mr John Hawkins the sum of one pound ten shillings, in full of all accounts, per me, William Fuller"

Upon inspecting the receipt the court asked Fuller who wrote it, he replied

"Hawkins wrote the body of it, and I signed it"

Court—"Did you see him write it?"
Fuller—"Yes"
Court—"And how long was it after he wrote it, before you signed it?"
Fuller—"I signed it immediately without going from the table"
Court—"How many standishes do you keep in the house?"
Fuller—"Standishes?"
Court—"Ay, standishes, it is a plain question"
Fuller—"My lord, but one and that is enough for the little writing we have to do"
Court—"Then you signed the receipt with the same ink that Hawkins wrote the body of it with?"
Fuller—"For certain"
Court—"Officer, hand the receipt to the Jury Gentlemen, you will see that the body of the note is written with one kind of ink, and the name at the bottom with another very different, and yet this witness has sworn that they were both written with the same ink, and one immediately after the other You will judge what credit is to be given to his evidence"

Thus the authenticity of the receipt and the credit of the witness were overthrown by the sagacity of the Court But while the Judge, Lord Chief Baron Montague, was summing up the evidence, he was interrupted by the following occurrence The person who reports the trial was then taking notes of the proceedings, his ink, as it happened, was very bad, being thick at the bottom and thin and waterish at the top, so that, according as he dipped the pen, the writing appeared very pale or pretty black The circumstance being remarked by some gentlemen present, they handed the book to the jury, the Judge perceiving them very attentively inspecting it, called to them

"Gentlemen, what are you doing? What book is that?" They told him that it was the writer's book, and that they were observing how the same ink appeared pale in one place and black in another. The Judge then told them "You ought not, gentlemen, to take notice of anything but what is produced in evidence," and, turning to the writer, demanded what he meant by showing that book to the jury. Being informed that it was taken from him, he inquired who took it and handed it to the jury But this the writer could not answer, as the gentlemen near him were all strangers to him, and he had not taken any particular notice of the person who took his book

That a jury ought not to take notice of any thing but what is produced in evidence is said to be law, but, on the contrary, it has been held, and surely very properly, that a juryman may find from his own knowledge, indeed, what evidence can convince a person that that which is he knows?

Hawkins and Simpson were convicted and executed, indeed, the evidence against them was very strong; but had the fate of Hawkins depended upon the single testimony of Fuller, he would, but for this occurrence, have fallen a sacrifice to the acuteness of the judge (!) who appears to have been so much displeased at the accidental confutation of his remarks on the receipt, although it was an accident in favor of life.

THE BARBER'S APPRENTICE.

September 14, 1772, came on at the sessions, at the Old Bailey, the trial of Male, a barber's apprentice, for robbing Mrs. Ryan, of Portland street, on the highway, on the 17th of June The witnesses swore positively to the identity of the lad, and the whole court imagined him guilty. He said nothing in his defense, but that he was innocent, and his evidences would prove it. His evidences were the books of the court, to which reference being made, it appeared that on the day and hour when the robbery was sworn to be committed, the lad was on his trial at the bar where he then stood, for another robbery, in which he was likewise unfortunate enough to be mistaken for the person who committed it, on which he was honorably acquitted

Mexico and Mexican Affairs

A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing under date of September 19th, from the city of Mexico, says

THE FRENCH EVACUATION.

A French paper of this capital claims to know exactly the result of the last negotiation with the Imperial Government, and that her Majesty could not but fail, as her propositions were contrary to engagements which France had contracted with the United States

The movements of troops will be carried out to the very letter of the agreement with the United States. On the 28th the Eighty first, Fifty first the Zouaves and Chasseurs d'Afrique will embark at Vera Cruz for France.

Marshal Bazaine's intended departure next month, it is reported, may possibly be postponed a few weeks, on account of the new phase which affairs seem likely to assume Considerable anxiety is felt by French residents, many of whom will return to France at an early day Their presence here, if the Liberals get into power, will certainly be unpleasant, if not unsafe, judging from threats freely indulged in by the least cautious talking Mexicans.

AN AMERICAN PROTECTORATE NEEDED AND DESIRED

The advisability of an American protectorate has been fully canvassed in this city, and prominent men from every State in the Empire have become its advocates Looking to the possibility of the sudden abdication of the Emperor at any time, it is proposed, in the event of Maximilian's resignation, that the government be administered by a Triumvirate, appointed by a junta of notables, until a Congress be elected and a President inaugurated The Triumvirate, as soon as appointed, to send commissioners to the United States to place Mexico under American protection, and to negotiate a loan of $12 000,000 and the assistance of 10,000 men This money and army, it is claimed, would pacify the country within one year, establish a Republic on a sure foundation, and the loan could also be repaid and the men returned within that time Conservative men say the country is heartily tired of war and can be easily pacified, especially as there are no military adventurers of ability in Mexico—there not being one of the whole number capable of planning a campaign or handling a single brigade when pitted against any general of foreign service.

SANTA ANNA AND THE FENIANS

The New York Herald of the 4th instant says the recent movements of Santa Anna have caused great commotion among the sympathizers with the cause of the Mexican Republic Yesterday his headquarters was thronged with parties representing all classes of interests but the chances of obtaining further information as to the designs or doings of the General in Chief became slimmer every day The chiefs of the Fenian organization are almost daily to be met at the headquarters on Staten Island

THE KNIGHTS OF THE GOLDEN CIRCLE.

Yesterday Santa Anna received, among other tenders of service, the following communication

No 120, MacDougal Street, October 3d, 1866

To His Excellency Don Antonio Santa Anna

Sir—Seeing your earnest efforts to drive the foreign invader from the soil of your native land I respectfully beg to tender you my sword and my hearty sympathy and cooperation in behalf of Mexican independence As the President of the Knights of the Golden Circle I think I can furnish you many valuable and true friends who will not desert your cause I am too well known to say more and less I could not say as I was one of the prime movers in the establishment of the Constitution in 1857 [Under which Comonfort acted as President —Ed Herald] I have the honor to be, your Excellency,

Guy Buckley of Virginia,
President of the K G C, and late C S A

COLONIZATION POLICY OF SANTA ANNA

General Sweeney called on Santa Anna yesterday afternoon It appears that Santa Anna included in his plans the project of settling in Mexico a large body of Irish and Germans He expresses his ideas in this respect very freely First their military aid and support is invaluable, next they can readily be induced, after the campaign to settle upon the rich lands of the tierras templadas and interior of Mexico; and finally, he calculates that it will be easier in this way to lay the basis of a closer connection with the English speaking Republic of the North, upon which Mexico must lean for some time to come He considers the white population of Mexico much to small in proportion to the other races, and, after the expulsion of the invader, he places colonization next upon his programme. There is no doubt but that a large number of the Fenians will enter into his views on the subject So Canada may disband her militia and rest easy

This is important when viewed in presence of Napoleon's letter to Marshal Forey dated at Fontainebleau, July 2, 1863, laying down the imperial policy of checking the expansion of the United States in the direction of the Gulf

REPORTED ADHESION OF MATAMORAS TO ORTEGA

The partisans of General Ortega in this city were yesterday unusually elated, owing to the reception of private dispatches from their liberal friends in Mexico, the intelligence at hand announcing that the chiefs in and about Matamoras had expressed their resolve to rally around Ortega It is stated that the official documents and all the details pertaining to the subject will reach this city in a few days; but as we have details from our own correspondents from the region indicated, and which contain no mention of these matters, they are to be received with many grains of allowance

THE FEELING TOWARD SANTA ANNA

There is no concealing the fact that the partisans of Ortega are filled with a bitter hatred towards Santa Anna The latter chieftain is declared to be an emissary of the French Government and a deadly foe to the Liberals Though Santa Anna is reported to have repeatedly offered his services and co-operation to Ortega, the latter has invariably declined to accept either, the general opinion being that the first named Mexican would not dare set his foot on the soil of his country, even if his adhesion to the Ortega faction were unfeigned and unmarred by any arriere pensee It is stated that Secretary Seward recently authorized General Ortega to deny officially any declaration to the effect that Santa Anna ever had any diplomatic intercourse either with the Secretary of State or with the United States Government, and that the General is in possession of documents that can be published at any moment for the purpose of showing the true position occupied by Santa Anna. As an instance of the great unpopularity of the latter among the Mexicans of this city, it is averred that when he required a secretary he was literally unable to find an assistant among any of his fellow citizens, and was compelled to accept the aid of Naphygi.

GEN ORTEGA ABOUT TO QUIT NEW YORK

It is believed that the General proposes to leave the city within a few days the tenor of the news received relative to the adhesion of the citizens of Matamoras being likely to hasten his departure With General Ortega at present are about twenty five Mexican officers among whom may be mentioned General Huerta General Quesada, Colonels Ortega, Togno, Fonseca, and Lieutenant Colonel Huerta. Many of the General's partisans who were at last accounts awaiting the arrival of Ortega in Texas, are now in Matamoras Among the most prominent of the Liberals believed to be in anxious expectation of Ortega's appearance on Mexican soil, are Generals Patoni, Poucel, Prieto, Negrete, Senor Palaces, Governor of Chihuahua, and others who have rallied around Canales, pending the appearance of Ortega in Mexico

Miscellaneous.

CIRCULAR
To the Officers and Soldiers Oregon Volunteers

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, SALEM Oct 23 1866

BY RECENT ACTS OF CONGRESS ALL OFFICERS of the Volunteer Service who were in Commission March 3d 1865 and subsequently mustered out after April 9, 1865 are entitled to three months extra pay proper

Enlisted men are entitled to additional bounty in certain cases by Acts of Congress of July 28th 1866 and the following rules and regulations together with the forms of application adopted by the War Department are published for the guidance of all concerned

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE PAYMENT OF BOUNTIES UNDER THE ACT TO EQUALIZE BOUNTIES, APPROVED JULY 28 1866

WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, WASHINGTON September 16 1866

1 All applications shall be filed within the period of six months, from the 1st day of October 1866, and before any payments are made shall be classified by regiments battalions or other separate organizations, and no application filed after that period shall be settled until after the former shall have been paid.

2 No application shall be entertained unless accompanied by the original discharge of the soldier and the affidavit required by the fourteenth section of the Act and the further affidavit that he has not received nor is he entitled to receive from the United States under any laws or regulations prior to the Act of July 28 1866, more than $100 bounty for any and all military service rendered by him during the late rebellion, over and above the amount therein claimed

3 All applications for the additional bounty authorized by this Act from surviving soldiers shall be in the form hereinafter prescribed, and the evidence of identity shall be the same as is now required and applications from the heirs of deceased soldiers shall be in the form now required by the Treasury Department

4 As soon as the examination of the claims of any regiment or other independent organization shall have been properly acted upon the Paymaster General shall take the necessary steps for their prompt payment

5 A register shall be kept in the Paymaster General's office and also in the office of the Second Auditor of all claims presented under the law, in which the claimants will be classified by regiments, etc If the claims be allowed, the amount of bounty paid to each will be noted, and if rejected the cause of rejection will be distinctly stated

6 In the applications for bounty, as required by the third of these rules the affidavit shall state each and every period of service rendered by the claimant and also that he never served otherwise than as therein stated

7 Organizations irregularly in the service of the United States or called out for special purposes as State Militia, Home Guards etc, and not included in the general bounty laws, are not included within the meaning of the Act

8 Soldiers enlisted for 'three years or during the war' who were discharged by reason of the termination of the war shall be considered as having served out the period of their enlistment, and are entitled to bounty under this Act

9 The minority of heirs, claimants for bounty under this Act, must be proven to have existed at the date of its passage Parents shall receive jointly the bounty to which they may be entitled as heirs, unless the father has abandoned the support of his family in which case it shall be paid to the mother Non-residence in the United States shall not be a bar to the claim of heirs, who would otherwise legally inherit.

The provisions of the Act exclude from its benefits the following classes

1 Those who, after serving the full period of their enlistment, were dishonorably discharged at its expiration

2 Those discharged during enlistment by way of favor or punishment.

3 Those discharged on account of disability contracted in the service but not occasioned by wounds received in the line of duty, who shall not have previously served two or three years respectively at the time of discharge

4 Those discharged on account of disability existing at the time of their enlistment

5 The heirs of those who have died since their discharge of wounds or disease not contracted in the service and in the line of duty

6 The surviving soldiers and heirs of deceased soldiers who, under previous laws, have received or are entitled to receive a bounty of more than $100 from the United States

7 The surviving soldiers, as well as the heirs of deceased soldiers, when such soldiers have bartered, sold, assigned, loaned, transferred, exchanged or given away their final discharge papers, or any interest in the bounty provided by this or any other Act of Congress.

8. The Act of the 28th of July, 1866 creates no right of inheritance beyond those vested by the law under which these heirs received or were entitled to receive the original bounty, and debars certain classes brothers and sisters of heirs that were entitled to receive the original bounty from any claim for the additional bounty provided by this Act

Respectfully referred to the Attorney General for his opinion on the point whether the rules and regulations as within amended are in conformity with law
EDWIN M STANTON, Secretary of War

This is but a just acknowledgement of the services of our brave volunteers who have imperilled their lives upon a hundred battle fields, or have left home with all its dear associations, to defend our frontier and protect the lives of our citizens from the murderous attacks of a savage foe and I sincerely desire that the brave volunteers of Oregon should receive the full benefit arising from this Act and for whose benefit I have issued this Circular

It will be necessary to strictly follow the foregoing rules and forms.

All applications must be made direct to the Second Auditor at Washington D C

All Soldiers desiring that I should attend to this business for them will make application to this office either by letter or in person Very respectfully,
Yours obediently,

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

617 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Private Diseases such as Gonorrhea, Gleet Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness, Impotency etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.
How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from the virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness or the enjoyment of life In this horrid state thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, and see that they are cured before it be too late. Bring them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians of Europe and other places Be therefore careful to make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of charlatans

Seminal Weakness.
Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse, solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost universal extent, producing with unerring certainty the train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confusion of ideas, blunted intellect loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society loss of memory, hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats monomania and frequent insanity.
